Alphabetical Name Listing

The Biographical Sketches for Surnames shown in the Shaded Rows may be found in the Supplemental Volume VI

Brothers shown in light blue shaded text lines may be found in Volume VII, Supplement II

Brothers shown in lime shaded text lines may be found in Volume XV, Supplement IX

In Vol. XIII, are 'Brooklyn' Freemasons of the Civil War, for whom most of the names and numbers of their Lodges were not given in the reference cited. These biographies were compiled from the archives of the Green Wood Cemetery of Brooklyn, NY to be found at <http://www.green-wood.com/2015/civil-war-biographies-archive/>

It may be noted that there could be significantly more Freemasons among the above listing, but the biographical data on the Civil War veterans interred at Green Wood Cemetery, is quite limited regarding such possibilities. In quite a few instances soldiers listed indicate they belong 'many organizations or societies,' but they are not named, hence those so listed do not appear in the below listing.

Bell	Lysander W.	x	Brownville	53
Bell	Lysander W.	x The gentleman whose name introduces the following sketch is one of the few men who have entered various enterprises, changing from one to another, and achieved success in each venture. Mr. Bell has shown remarkable qualifications in his journey through the business world, and he always possessed that confidence which, combined with close attention and industry, accomplishes much towards a successful end. Lysander W. Bell , confectioner, Elizabeth, Otter Tail county, was born on April 23, 1847, in the state of New York, and is a son of William and Betsy (Seeber) Bell. His education was obtained at the public schools of New York state, and later entered the high school at Brownville for two years, after which he spent three years in a woolen factory in Connecticut, at the end of which time he returned to New York, where he was employed by a lumber company for nine years, under the firm name of the New York Improvement Company. In 1884 he came to Fergus Falls, his brother, Hamilton, having settled there at an earlier date. They had a section of land in partnership and lived near Fergus Falls, coming to Elizabeth in 1887. Mr. Bell has always given his support to the Republican party. In local politics he has taken no active interest, having served as postmaster of Elizabeth for seventeen years, and town marshal for ten years; president of the town council for two years, and	Brownville	53

		also served as village recorder for two years. He was insurance agent for the St. Paul Fire and Marine, and German-American, of New York, for eighteen years. Fraternally, he belongs to the Masonic blue lodge. William Bell, father of Lysander W., was born in May, 1820, and died in January, 1897. He was united in marriage to Betsey Seeber, daughter of Henry W. and Susan (Overocker) Seeber. She was born in New York state. William Bell was educated at the public schools, and followed farming all his life, dying in New York state. The children born to this union were: Hamilton, Eliza, Susan, Mary, Emma and Alice. Mr. Bell did not take much interest in politics, but was an earnest churchman, officiating as an elder for about forty years. The paternal grandfather was George Bell, whose wife was Margaret Buchanan, a first cousin of James Buchanan, the fifteenth President of the United States. George Bell was a native of Ireland, and came to the United States in 1812, locating in New York state, where he followed farming, and was a neighbor of Grandfather Seeber. He came to America in a sailing vessel that was captured by the British, and was put in a fort on the defense for three years, being located at Nova Scotia, where he contracted a fever sore, which later resulted in his death. The children born to George and Margaret (Buchanan) Bell were as follows; James A., William, Robert, George, John and Mary. Robert Bell went to the Civil War in Company I, Tenth New York Artillery, of which he was lieutenant. James Bell was a Republican, and became state senator for two terms, and was also state auditor for a period. Henry W. Seeber, the maternal grandfather, was of PennsylvaniaDutch descent, and was a native of Pennsylvania, and a blacksmith by trade. He went from Mohawk Valley, New York, to Jefferson county, New York state, where he followed farming until his death, which occurred at the age of ninety years. He was a member of the Methodist church. His wife was Susan Overocker. Lysander W. Bell was united in marriage to Alda Perkins, daughter of Jenks Perkins, of New York state, where Mrs. Bell was born. This union has been blest with one son, Clark S., who was married to Matilda Zimmerman. Their home is at Elizabeth. Mr. Bell is a man of strong characteristics, and a well balanced mind. He is well known and well liked throughout Otter Tail county, where he has long been a resident.

Born in the town of Victory, this county, 8 Nov 1826; attended school in that town until 1844, when he was selected by the Board of Supervisors as one of the three pupils allotted to Cayuga County for education in the State Normal School at Albany and was the youngest member of its first class, graduating in fifteen months after entrance; he commenced reading law in Victory and continued his studies in Auburn after his graduation and thereafter commenced a course of study at the Albany Law School. Before finishing his course he was appointed to a position in the United States Treasury by its secretary — Honorable James Guthrie of Kentucky — which he accepted and shortly after was promoted to the position of special agent. He was admitted to the bar in 1856 and in 1860 was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention held at Charleston, South Carolina, where he earnestly advocated the nomination of Senator Stephen A. Douglass for president. On the commencement of the Civil War, he became a Republican in politics and was a member of the war committee appointed to raise troops in the Twenty-Fourth Congressional district and took an active part in the work. In 1863 he was appointed provost marshal in which position he rendered valuable service to the Government. At the close of the war he entered upon a business life and became identified with the American Express Company, of which, he was a director at the time of his death; he served on the staff of Governor Dix (during his administration) with the rank of brigadier-general, from June 1, 1873; he was for many years a member of the Republican State Committee and at different periods its chairman and treasurer Appointed postmaster in Auburn in March, 1890, by President Harrison, but resigned before the expiration of his term and was	Cato	141 appointed internal revenue collector upon the death of John B. Strong, which office he held until his death, December 9, 1893.
